

Iron County Register

Entered in the Postoffice at Ironton, Mo., as second class matter.

VOLUME XXXIV. NUMBER 30.

IRONTON, MO.
THURSDAY, JAN. 17, 1901.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The present winter promises to break the record.

The physicians report a great number of people suffering from cold and grip. To the Greater Bonanza Man the editor is indebted for a box of most excellent cigars.

Rev. T. A. Waterman will hold services in St. Paul's Church next Sunday morning and evening.

Don't forget the "First of the Century Fete" at Workman's Hall, Graniteville, Wednesday evening, January 23d.

The Graham Earle Company at the Academy of Music this week is playing to good houses and giving complete satisfaction.

About one hundred men are now employed at Iron Mountain shipping ore. It is said the number will be increased in the spring.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Iron County Bank Monday the old board of directors was re-elected for the ensuing year.

The company holding forth at the Academy this week spent last week at Puxico on the Houck road. They go to Willow Springs next week.

A gang of men have arrived here to work on the track east of town. It is proposed to cut down the grade and "fill in" on either side of the new bridge.

The Iron Mountain Company will have their diamond drills in operation in Bellevue Valley next April on lands optioned by Thomas Beard, our mining expert.

The Bell Telephone people are rushing their work through the Valley. Most of the poles are already in position and in a day or two will be ready for the wires.

The Webb Bros. are still running their drill with good prospects of striking lead in paying quantities. They have drilled seven holes on Thomas' land with good results.

At the meeting of the City Council Monday evening an ordinance was passed giving the Bell Telephone Company a franchise to build their telephone line through the city.

The railroad company is at last preparing to put up the iron bridge across Stout's Creek. People who travel that way hope there will be no more delay in arranging for the convenience of pedestrians.

It is understood that the lodge here will make an effort to secure the next celebration of the Southeast Missouri Knights of Pythias. The celebration will attract a large attendance and we hope the boys will be successful in landing the affair.

If the REGISTER had its way, every man and boy who carries a "gun" would contribute fifty dollars to the school fund. The two prevalent practices of carrying concealed deadly weapons is unmanly, cowardly and contemptible, as well as unlawful.

To the Ursuline Sisters the editor is indebted for a copy of Arcadia Ursuline Jubilee March composed by Mother M. Jolivia and dedicated to Rt. Rev. J. J. Hennessy, Wichita, Kansas. It is a most excellent composition, indeed, and will doubtless prove quite popular.

Last Monday evening, just after Geo. Johnson had finished repairing the breast to his ice pond, it broke away and the waters of the stream took the even tenor of their erstwhile way unmolested. But he will have his pond in shape for Jack Frost's long delayed visit.

Sheriff Gregory has been notified by the penitentiary officials that that institution has quarantined against the admission of prisoners until April 1st. This will necessitate the three sentenced in court here a couple of weeks since remaining in the jail here until April 1st.

C. C. Lashley desires to call the attention of the public to the fact that he has opened a restaurant and lunch room in the building north of Dr. Farner's office. Lunches and meals are served at all hours—night and day. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

Sheriff Gregory last week made a trip to Greenville where he secured James Loyd, who was indicted by the grand jury here last fall for robbing a peddler. Joe Fay has already pleaded guilty to the charge and been given a sentence of five years in the penitentiary.

The Black River Mining Company will commence mining operations next month on their property on Shut-in Creek. No doubt but the western portion of Iron County will be developed this coming season. It is well known that lead and copper are found in veins and deposits in this part of Iron County.

E. E. Mathews, of Arcadia, arrived here the first of the week, and since coming has purchased the drug store of Sheriff Malugen and will make this his permanent place of residence. Ed is well known by our people, having lived here several years ago, and they all welcome him back. And furthermore, Ed is a good druggist.—Greenfield Sun.

If you know any item of news kindly tell us about it. Every week we will tell you all we know. We know that you know news that we don't know. And we know that you know we don't know it, still you don't tell us. Now, if you will tell us what you know we'll tell you what we know and also what you know and our readers will know what they know and what you know and what we know that you know we know that you know.

The Graham Earle Company, now filling a week's engagement at the Academy of Music, is deservedly receiving liberal patronage. The plays presented are of the better class—clean and wholesome. The members of the company are evidently ladies and gentlemen, and they give a good show. "East Lynne" to-night will deserve a full house, and the ROSSITER hopes there may be "standing room only."

List of letters remaining in the Post-Office at Ironton, Mo., for the week ending Jan. 12, 1901. If not called for within two weeks, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office: John Appleton Joe Louis Henry Hart A Miller Esq W E Rogers

Persons claiming the above will please say "advertised" and give date of this list. J. N. BISHOP, P. M.

DIED—Jan. 11, 1901, at Long Pine, Neb., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Hinks—age six months and 11 days.

A tender little life laid to rest, Tired little hands folded from play—Too harsh it seems, at best—We're this world's wintry day.

A little gem hidden in its earthen bed, The little spirit smiling back its peace; O were it not for that chill word, "dead," Our joy of him not yet would cease.

A MOURNER.

Somebody has explained the significance of the editorial "we." It may have a variety of meanings. For example, when you read "We expect our wife home to-day," "we" refers to the editor: "We are a little late with our work" includes the whole office force, even the devil and the towel; in "We are having a boom" the "we" is the town; "We received over 1,000,000 emigrants last year" embraces the nation; but "We have hog cholera in our midst" means that the man who takes our paper and does not pay for it is ill.

Fritz Schwab, who spent the greater portion of his life in Pilot Knob, died quite suddenly in Illinois Thursday evening last. Mr. Schwab was employed in a coal mine, and had spent the day at his work, apparently in usual health. After eating supper he was attacked with heart trouble and in a few moments was dead. The remains were brought here and interred at Pilot Knob Sunday. The deceased was about forty-five years of age, and had no family. He was a hard-working, kindly man and has many friends here who heard of his demise with sorrow. May he rest in peace!

The following is from the pen of an Indiana editor: "The publisher of a newspaper has one thing to sell and one thing to rent. He has a newspaper to sell, and the space in his columns to rent. Can anyone inform us why he should be expected to give away either the one or the other? He can if he so chooses, and he does, as a matter of fact, furnish a great deal of space rent free. But it does not follow that he ought to be expected to do so. It ought to be recognized as a contribution, exactly as would be the giving away of sugar or coffee by a grocer. But, strange to say, it is not looked upon in that light at all; and yet everybody knows that the existence of a newspaper depends upon the rent of its space and sale of the paper, just the same as a merchant's success depends on selling his goods, instead of giving them away."

A newspaper man was asked to publish an article roasting a citizen. "Certainly," he said to the caller, "what shall I write?" He was furnished with an outline of what was wanted, and wrote an article that was a scorcher. "That's splendid," exclaimed the friend delightedly, when the article was read to him, "that is right, that'll make his old hair crinkle." "All right," said the editor, "let me see what are your initials?" "Good heavens!" said the citizen, "you are not going to sign my name to that?" "Why not?" asked the editor, "I would not have anyone know I had anything to do with that for the world; I can't afford to get into a fray with my neighbors." The editor smiled benevolently and said: "Why should I get mixed up in a scrap that does not concern me? Why should you expect me to assume the blame for the publication of an article to which you are afraid to sign your name?" The man stopped his paper and went away mad.

Wm. L. Beyersdorff an attorney of Centreville is dead. He died at Lester-ville in this county on the morning of January 6th, 1901, of pneumonia fever. Mr. Beyersdorff came to Centreville from St. Louis about 14 years ago and has from that time, excepting about one year, made this his home. He was well read in the law, having graduated from the St. Louis School of Law in 1876. For some years he had a fine paying practice in St. Louis, Franklin and other counties in this State. He was located at Washington in Franklin county. During this time he married a very nice lady of St. Louis, whose father was a banker, and a very wealthy man. From this marriage there was born one child, a girl, who is now married and living in Ohio. There was a separation and divorce. Mrs. Beyersdorff getting the custody of the child. Mrs. Beyersdorff married again, and it is said that Mr. B. has never been able to see or have any talk with his daughter since the separation. Soon after coming to Centreville Mr. Beyersdorff procured the consent of the county court of this county to set out shade and ornamental trees in the Court House yard at Centreville and the beauty of the yard to-day is the effect of his handiwork. He enjoyed a good practice here for some years and made some money. He was well educated and had all the marks of a well-raised, cultured gentleman. To say that he had faults, would only be repeating the natural inate principles of every man, but on the other hand he was kind and accommodating. Mr. Beyersdorff has for some years been boarding at D. C. Howell's in Centreville. On the night of Dec. 21st he had a chill and on the next morning, having some business at Lesterville, he went down there, where he continued to grow worse until his death as above stated. His request was that his body be buried in one corner of the court house yard here, where he had spent so many hours, and supposed to be his happiest hours in latter years, beautifying the grounds. It was the wish of many that the last request of the dying man could have been granted.

but it could not be so and his body was decently laid away in the Centreville cemetery to await the call of that Great Judge at the last day. Let us throw the mantle of charity around the memory of our deceased brother and may his ashes rest in peace.—Centre-ville Reformer.

St. Louis Letter.

Our jovial friend, Tony Roehry, was a visitor at Club headquarters—in fact the first Iron county caller of the new century. When asked about the work at the Knob, Tony said: "Well, its nothing doing now, but der superstition is, dat they'll start again in der spring."

Edward Steffens, our corresponding secretary, has returned from a two weeks' visit to his parents. While at Graniteville Ed. gave an informal banquet to his fellow Club members, Messrs. Trauernicht, Rodach and Jaquith.

A suitable reward will be paid by the Club for the arrest and conviction of the stranger who "wolfed" one of our members out of a five dollar bill, which he was sent to have changed. All communications referring to same should be addressed to J. Snasdell, Esq.

The citizens of Pilot Knob have petitioned the Iron Mountain Railroad Company to have two passenger trains stop at that station daily. Although Mr. J. R. Westworth, the division superintendent has refused their request, they have by no means given up hope, but will begin their work on new lines. A prominent St. Louis citizen, who is highly thought of in Valley, has assured them of his support, and the Club offers its hearty cooperation. "Nothing too good for Iron county" is our motto.

Hugh T. Pattison, John Snasdell and J. B. Terry have been elected as the new members of the entertainment committee of the I. C. C.

Will J. Biel and Frank Parent broke all of their long distance records by walking from Chicago to St. Louis, arriving at the latter place at seven o'clock Tuesday evening. On the first of February they will walk to Pilot Knob and expect to make the trip in two days. Critics may "pooh-pooh" as much as they like, but Will and Frank are walkers from Walkersville.

We are in receipt of a letter from Charles Erasmus Hill, expostmaster at Malden, Mo., and now assistant at Caruthersville, stating he will be in the city early in the Spring, as representative of Caruthersville Lodge, Royal Order of Turtles. Make the Club your headquarters, Chas.

J. W. Crawford, of Cairo, Ill., passed through last Tuesday on his way to El Paso, Tex., and paid the club a very pleasant visit.

Dr. J. Davis Nifong is back at his office the Mermod-Jacard building, after having spent the holidays with relatives in Fredericktown, Mo.

The Club wishes to thank Anton Roehry, of Ironton, Mo., and William Steffens, of Graniteville, Mo., for a gallon of sixteen year old rye, and a hundred Mercantile cigars, respectively. It was all the more appreciated by those members of the club whose duties kept them away from the Valley Xmas week.

Frank Rodach and Miss Emma Siebert were married at five o'clock Wednesday evening at St. Mathew church. They left the same evening for California to spend their honeymoon, and will be at home, 2162 College Ave., after February the 1st. The Iron County Club wishes them success and happiness in their matrimonial step.

Miss Mae Gay spent a few days in the city, on her way to Mexico, Mo., to attend college.

John Schwab entertained Ed. Steffens a few days during Ed's sojourn in the Valley Xmas week. It is said they set the streets on fire, with John's 205 horse. Ed. talks of entering it in the races next season.

Iron County's popular mail clerk, J. W. Jaquith, is fond of black eyes.

Fritz Kath, while visiting in the Valley Xmas week, was giving the police of Pilot Knob a few valuable pointers.

Word has just been received that E. W. Killalee, of the 6th U. S. Artillery, now recuperating at Fort Bayard, New Mexico, has just received his discharge from service with honorable mention. He also bore the distinction of being of excellent character and was granted the privilege of remaining as long as he may desire, and of being admitted to the Soldier's Home either at Fort Bayard or at Washington. He also has been engaged in several fierce battles along the Dugapan R. R., in the Philippine Islands, where he has been stationed for almost two years.

IRON COUNTY CLUB.

The Iron County Amusement Club begs to extend through the columns of the IRON COUNTY REGISTER its wishes for the future success of the Iron Co. Eagle under its new management.

Mr. Jake Grandhomme, the popular thirst dispenser of Ironton, was in our city last week. On account of important business matters Jake was unable to call at Club headquarters. He, however, sent his regrets.

Mr. Jack Snasdell, proprietor of the Choice Bar of 10th and Pine St., has closed his place of business. The Green Tree Brewing Co. intends remodeling the place, and Jack will take a little recreation until same is completed.

Fred Smith and best girl, Miss Gertrude, were seen at the Imperial Theatre one night last week attending the performance of "A Texas Steer." Fred enjoyed the play immensely until the investigating committee showed their appreciation by performing the stage with a couple of thirty-eights. Fred immediately started for the door, but was finally induced to resume his seat by the ushers, who informed him that that was only a part of the play. Fred was heard to remark that he would not like to live in Texas.

Wm. Steffens, Jr., formerly 1st assistant at the Choice Bar has removed to Cheltenham, Mo., where he has secured employment with the Evans & Howard Co.

The Iron County Amusement Club has sent to the World's Fair Committee its intention to support them with the full strength of the Club to help land the World's Fair for St. Louis in 1903.

Jules Rodach, V. P., called at headquarters last week to confer with Club officials regarding the duties in his new position.

Wm. Russell has returned to the city after a trip through the southwest over the Frisco Line, his division of territory.

J. A. Stafford, of Steelville, Mo., was in the city last week.

Ed. Mathews spent the holidays and watched the dawn of the new century in St. Louis.

The I. C. Goodfellow Club will give their 3rd Grand Masquerade Ball at Masonic Hall February 9th, 1901, and extend to all their members and friends their hearty invitation to attend. A most enjoyable evening will be guaranteed.

The Imperial Theatre under the new change of program is enjoying crowded houses nightly. The play this week, "A Trip to Coon-Town," is an excellent one.
